Updated: Oct, 2023

Please email your CV/Resumé and letter of interest addressed to: - secretariat@girlsinsport.org

Time commitment and location

- The Trustees meet at least twice a year
- Board meetings are held via conference call

This is a non-remunerated position

Background

Join us in fostering talent and equality of opportunity in some of the world's most overlooked settings

Girls in Sport is a non-profit entity registered as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation with the Charity Commission of England and Wales, no. 1175997.

Our projects are currently focused in West Africa

Girls in Sport seeks to improve the life chances of girls in poor and post-crisis settings. Our work facilitates locally managed projects to promote sport as a pathway to enable girls to become champions and leaders in all their endeavours; through equality of access to opportunity we are unlocking pathways to sustainable development by facilitating [these]community led programmes.

We are currently seeking to appoint up to three additional Trustees, to join our governance board at Girls in Sport, to bring more balance, and skills to our decision-making. You will be dedicated, able to exercise discretion, and be passionate about gender equality. You will also have a strong interest in West Africa or development and crisis settings and offer the skills to help us forge and execute our ambitious strategy to reach more communities.

You will be an individual of exceptional calibre with a clear commitment to social equity, but with a strong understanding of, and sensitivity to cross-cultural themes in development programming, and an understanding and respect for the commonly accepted standards of 'do no harm', as enshrined in international norms.

We welcome candidates from multidisciplinary backgrounds, or those with niche skills that we need at the governance level including programming, fiscal prudence and treasury, law, policymaking, and the civil diplomatic service. We also welcome candidates with a background in fund-raising, stakeholder management, and wider areas such as business development and marketing.

N.B: We will consider candidates with political backgrounds however due to impartiality rules we cannot consider individuals who are currently in office or hold positions whereby we consider any close association with politically connected individuals, a potential conflict of interest may arise.

We welcome applications from black, Asian and minority ethnic candidates, LGBTQ+ candidates and candidates with disabilities

We want to do this because we know greater diversity will lead to greater results for our beneficiary communities. We also encourage applications from the West Africa diaspora, and from all socio-economic backgrounds.

Trustee role description

The role of the Board Trustees has and must accept ultimate responsibility for directing Girls in Sport affairs, ensuring it is solvent, well-run, and delivering the outcomes for which it has been set up.

Strategic direction Trustees should focus on Girls in Sport's strategic direction and avoid becoming involved in day-to-day operational decisions and matters. Where trustees do need to become involved in operational matters, they should separate their strategic and operational roles.

Trustee performance – The Nolan Principles All Charities have a public benefit responsibility and in carrying out their role, Girls in Sport's Trustees are expected to adhere to the Seven Principles of Public Life: -

- Selflessness
- Integrity
- Objectivity
- Accountability
- Openness
- Honesty
- Leadership

Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.

Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.

Holders of public office should be truthful.

Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.
